
Networking Arrangements Program

Examination Objectives

To assess the adequacy of the savings association's policies and procedures and oversight by management and the board of directors to ensure that customers clearly understand the differences between insured deposits and nondeposit investment products.

To determine the effectiveness of the savings association's compliance and audit programs to ensure that the savings association conducts the networking arrangement in compliance with the Interagency Statement, the Chubb Letter, other OTS guidelines, and applicable law.

To determine whether the savings association monitors the networking arrangement's effect on the saving association's income, expenses, and deposits and takes appropriate action when necessary.

To obtain commitments for corrective action when policies, procedures, practices, or management oversight is deficient or the association has failed to comply with the interagency statement, OTS practices, or applicable law.

Examination Procedures

The extent to which you will perform procedures depends on a number of factors. These factors include:

- Types of sales activity.
- Specific product offered.
- Size and complexity of the operation.
- Any relationships with affiliates or third parties and the savings association.

Pre-Examination Analysis

Wkp. Ref.

1. Review previous OTS examination reports, internal and external audit reports, management letters, supervisory correspondence, and any approval conditions or enforcement actions. Perform any necessary follow-up procedures to ensure the association took effective correction action or is complying with conditions.

- Whether the savings association implemented post transaction quality controls, such as: exception-reporting systems, reviews of customer satisfaction, and internal and external audits.
- Whether the compliance program, at a minimum, includes a system to monitor to detect and prevent improper practices in the networking arrangement.

6. Determine how the board develops and approves the policies and procedures for the networking arrangement. Review the policies and procedures to determine if they address the following:

- Compliance procedures.
- Supervision of personnel involved in sales.
- Types of products sold, selection criteria.
- Permissible use of customer information.
- Designation of employees to sell investment products.
- Disclosures and advertising.
- Setting and circumstances.
- Qualifications and training.
- Compensation.

7. Determine if the savings association conducted a thorough review of broker-dealer (affiliate or nonaffiliate) before entering into the networking arrangement. If so, did the review include the following information:

- Competence, experience, and integrity.
- Financial condition.
